

From: ESPN 710AM Experience <espnsocalexperience@gmail.com>

To: racerscare@aol.com

Subject: [ESPN Experience] ESPN 710AM: Sanare Center and Racers Who Care

Date: Mon, 18 Aug 2008 12:14 pm

Coming Up On the Next
Southern California Experience
August 24, 2008
Sanare Center and Racers Who Care

Sanare Center

Dr. Ravinder Singh and Alli Janjua

Ravinder Singh, MD, and Alli Janjua come in and talk about their new service for Veteran's Mental Health. They will provide free services to Veteran's at the Sanare Center. Through a network of local and remote physicians and alternative practitioners, they are able to access expertise of some of the best resources from distant centers such as those based in India. With their local experts being part of this process the patients are able to avail the best available expertise at a fraction of the cost and without having to travel to distant places. Ravinder Singh, MD, a board-certified neurologist with extensive clinical and research experience in the treatment and prevention of neurological diseases. He combines traditional medicine with proven alternative options for healing and optimal health. Dr. Singh is the past president of the American Heart Association (LA), and is currently serving on the national advisory board of the American Stroke Association.
<http://www.sanarecenter.com/>

Racers Who Care

Scott "Lucky" Hudson, Judy Strawn and Nathan Swartzbaugh

NHRA drag racer and host of the SpeedScene Live online telecast Scott "Lucky" Hudson, American LeMans competitor Nathan Swartzbaugh, RWC President Judy Strawn came in to talk to us about Racer's Who Care. Auto, Boat, Motorcycle and truck racers dedicated to making a positive difference for our next generation. They came in and to talk to us about their Quick Tips on Winning in Life and National Child's Day Celebration.

<http://www.myspace.com/RACERSWHOCARE>

<http://www.SpeedSceneRacing.com>

<http://www.nathanswartzbaugh.com>

--

Posted By ESPN 710AM Experience to ESPN Experience at 8/18/2008 12:00:00 PM